

D114 Australian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation – Bulli Lodge

History The Bulli Miners' Lodge was first convened in 1879 at Wilson's Hotel, Bulli. It became part of the Illawarra Miners' mutual protective Association in 1885. Although this district organisation was short lived, the lodge continued. In 1890, the lodge was a constituent of the Illawarra Branch of the Amalgamated miners' Association of Australia. After a series of name changes, the union become the Australian Coal and Shale Employees' Federation.
