

D213 Dapto Smelting Works 1897-1905

History	A substantial lead-zinc smelting works operated on the southern shore of Lake Illawarra at Kanahooka Point between 1897 and 1905. This research collection includes historical and modern references to the works and subsequent development of the site. Compiled by Michael Organ, member of the Illawarra Historical Society and Illawarra Environmental Heritage Committee.
Record Summary	Historical research notes and correspondence.
Date	1980s
Quantity	0.1m
Description	No listing available.
Access	Open
Accessioned	1996
Listed	4 February 1999
RAAM No.	-