

D221 A.F.U.L.E. (Thirroul Branch)

History	Australian Federated Union of Locomotive Enginemen (Thirroul Branch) minute book covering the period 1964-71, plus associated items. The branch was disbanded in 1971 due to a transfer of operations away from Thirroul to Wollongong and Port Kembla. This was associated with the phasing out of steam locomotives at the Thirroul terminus and the introduction of diesels. Donated by John Deland, 316 Illaroo Road, Nowra North, 2541.
Record Summary	Minute book, timetable, information book.
Date	1964 - 1971
Quantity	3 items (1 box)
Description	Listing available.
Access	Open
Accessioned	2 May 2000
Listed	4 May 2000
RAAM No.	-

D221 A.F.U.L.E. (Thirroul Branch)

- 1 Australian Federated Union of Locomotive Enginemmen - Thirroul Branch - Minute Book (1964 - 1971).
- 2 Working Timetable for Passenger Train Services also Loads for Trains - Metropolitan Part 1 - from 5 May 1968, Department of Railways - New South Wales, Government Printer, 1968, 330, 272p.
- 3 A Manual of Conditions Applying to Locomotive Enginemmen in New South Wales, NSW Divisional Office, AFULE, Sydney, circa 1982, 432p.