

D37 Australian Labor Party – Bulli-Woonona Branch

History The main functions of a branch of the A.L.P. are to select candidates who will stand for political office as representatives of the Labor party; and to elect delegates to other bodies which consider decisions on party policy and administration that the branches within their area have made. The Bulli-Woonona Branch is affiliated with the Hughes Federal Electorate Council and the Heathcote State Electorate Council. Until 19 sep 1939, there were separate branches at Bulli and Woonona.
